Report on Shielding Women's Health: Cervical Cancer Prevention Awareness

Club Name	:	Gender Chamionship Club
Title of the event	:	Shielding Women's Health: Cervical Cancer Prevention Awareness
Event Date	:	25.06.2025
Total Number of Student Participated:		60
Venue	:	K.Kallukudi North
Time	:	10.00 A.M
No of Beneficiaried	:	Above 60
Sustainable Goal Involved	:	Yes (SDG 3- Good Health and Well Being)
Program Coordinators	:	Ms.S.Jermina Rose

The Gender Champion Club of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women conducted an outreach programme titled Shielding Women's Health: Cervical Cancer Prevention Awareness for government school students. The initiative aimed to create health awareness among adolescent girls, educate them on women's reproductive health, and promote early prevention strategies to reduce the risk of cervical cancer.

This programme aligned with the club's mission to empower young girls with essential knowledge, promote gender-sensitive health education, and encourage informed decision-making for a healthier future.

Objectives of the Programme

The key objectives of the outreach activity were:

- To create awareness about cervical cancer and its impact on women's health.

- To educate students on causes, symptoms, and risk factors associated with cervical cancer.
- To highlight the significance of HPV vaccination as a primary preventive measure.
- To promote personal hygiene, safe lifestyle practices, and early medical screening.
- To eliminate stigma, taboo, and misinformation surrounding women's reproductive health.
- To empower young girls to disseminate this knowledge within their families and communities.

Programme Summary

The programme commenced with a welcome address by the coordinators of the Gender Champion Club, followed by an introduction to the theme and its relevance to adolescent girls. A detailed and student-friendly presentation on cervical cancer prevention was delivered by the resource persons.

- Preventive Measures:
  - Importance of HPV vaccination for girls aged 9–14
  - Need for regular Pap smear tests in adulthood
  - Maintaining proper personal and menstrual hygiene
  - Adoption of safe lifestyle habits and nutritious food

Outcome of the Programme

The outreach programme resulted in:

- Increased awareness and understanding of cervical cancer among students.
- Enhanced confidence in addressing and discussing women's health issues.
- Reduction in fear, stigma, and misconceptions related to cervical cancer.
- Improved knowledge about the importance of early vaccination and regular screening.

Encouragement among students to adopt hygienic practices and share the information with peers and family members.

Teachers also expressed their appreciation and emphasized the need for more such awareness programmes.

Feedback Received

Feedback from teachers and students was overwhelmingly positive.

- Students felt the presentation was clear, informative, and easy to understand.
- Teachers acknowledged the importance of introducing such crucial health topics at a young age.
- Many participants expressed interest in attending similar sessions on menstrual hygiene, nutritional health, and adolescent well-being.

The feedback highlighted that the programme was timely, impactful, and highly relevant to the health needs of adolescent girls.

The outreach activity on "Ways to Prevent Cervical Cancer" conducted by the Gender Champion Club of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women was a significant step toward promoting adolescent health awareness. The programme succeeded in educating young girls about essential preventive measures, encouraging healthy practices, and fostering a supportive environment for discussing women's health issues.

Such initiatives play a vital role in building informed, confident, and health-aware young women, contributing to a healthier and empowered society.

The Gender Champion Club of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women organized a meaningful outreach activity titled Healthy Periods, Dignified Lives: Sanitary Napkin Distribution to Government School Students. The initiative aimed to promote menstrual hygiene awareness, support girl students from underprivileged backgrounds, and encourage healthy and informed attitudes toward women's health.

Objectives of the Programme

1. To create awareness among school girls about menstrual hygiene and its importance.
2. To support the health and well-being of girl students by providing sanitary napkins.
3. To break social stigma surrounding menstruation and encourage openness and confidence.

4. To promote gender sensitivity and empower young girls through education and support.
5. To extend community service as part of the college's commitment to social responsibility.

Description of the Programme

The outreach programme was conducted on [insert date] at [insert school name], where members of the Gender Champion Club, along with faculty coordinators, interacted with the government school students. The program began with a welcome address followed by a brief session on menstrual hygiene management.

The resource person explained essential practices such as using clean sanitary products, maintaining personal hygiene, understanding the menstrual cycle, and managing discomfort during periods. Visual charts and simple demonstrations were used to make the session informative and engaging for the students.

After the awareness session, sanitary napkin kits were distributed to all the girl students. The volunteers also took time to address the students' queries regarding menstruation, health, and hygiene. The event aimed not only at donation but also at building confidence and helping the students feel comfortable discussing their concerns.

Outcome of the Programme

- Increased awareness of menstrual hygiene and healthy practices.
- Improved access to sanitary products for students with limited resources.
- Reduction of fear, stigma, and misinformation related to menstruation.
- Empowerment of young girls with knowledge and confidence.
- Strengthened the college's commitment to community outreach and gender sensitization.

Feedback Received

The school staff and students expressed heartfelt appreciation for the initiative. Teachers stated that such programmes are essential to ensure young girls do not miss school during their menstrual cycle due to lack of resources or awareness. Students reported that the session helped them understand menstruation better and made them feel comfortable discussing it openly. Many valued the sanitary napkin kits and requested more such awareness programmes in the future.

The outreach activity proved to be a meaningful and impactful initiative by the Gender Champion Club of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women. It not only addressed a vital health and hygiene issue but also contributed to empowering young girls with knowledge, confidence, and essential resources. The programme successfully fulfilled its objectives and reinforced the college's commitment to fostering gender equality, health awareness, and community support.

A one-day awareness programme on "Gender Equity, Gender Equality, Women's Empowerment, And Elimination of Violence Against Women" was organized by Department of Social Welfare and Women's Rights for College students.

Introduction,

An impactful and timely Awareness Programme on Gender Equity, Gender Equality, Women's Empowerment, and the Elimination of Violence Against Women was conducted with the aim of spreading awareness about the critical issues related to gender justice and women's rights.

Objectives of Workshop/Seminar

The program was graced by the presence of several eminent personalities:

Thiru V. Sarananan, IAS, District Collector, Trichy

Thiru S. Selvaraganaharathinam, Superintendent of Police, Trichy

Tmt. N. Kamini, Commissioner of Police, Trichy

The programme also witnessed the esteemed presence of several dignitaries from the judiciary who are actively engaged in the promotion of gender justice. The key guests included:

Hon'ble Dr. Justice Anita Sumanth, Judge, High Court of Madras and Portfolio Judge of Tiruchirappalli District.

Hon'ble Dr. Justice R.N. Manjula, Judge, High Court of Madras and Chairperson, GSICC-I.

Hon'ble Thiru. Justice P. Vadamalai, Judge, High Court of Madras and Portfolio Judge of Tiruchirappalli District.

Hon'ble Dr. Justice S. Vimala, Former Judge, High Court of Madras.

A special address was delivered by Vadamalai Sir, who passionately spoke about the reality faced by women—those who live in safety and those who continue to live under unsafe conditions.

Justice Dr. R.N. Manjula emphasized the importance of inclusivity, urging attendees to support and invite women colleagues and domestic workers to participate in dialogues on equality and safety in workplaces.

A special highlight of the event was the release of the book "Label of Love" by Dr. Nirmala Rani, which outlines the procedures to address and file complaints related to sexual harassment, and provides essential insights into creating comfortable and inclusive work environments. Justice Anita Sumanth also addressed the gathering, reiterating the core mission of the event – to implement such sensitization programs in every district across the country.

An inspiring and thought-provoking session was delivered by Honourable Dr. Justice Anitha Sumanth on the crucial themes of gender equality and women's empowerment. Her address shed light on the prevailing issues faced by women across various sectors and emphasized the need for collective action and policy-level reforms to ensure equal opportunities and rights for all genders.

Dr. Justice Anitha Sumanth passionately highlighted the importance of creating inclusive spaces for women in education, employment, judiciary, and politics. She urged institutions and communities to work together in breaking stereotypes, addressing gender-based violence, and fostering a culture of respect and equity.

One of the most significant takeaways from her speech was her call to action for conducting similar awareness and empowerment programs across all districts of Tamil Nadu. She emphasized that reaching women at the grassroots level is essential for lasting social transformation. Her suggestion was well received and appreciated by the attendees and organizing committee alike.

The session concluded with a renewed sense of commitment towards building a gender-sensitive and inclusive society, with promises of future initiatives to implement the vision shared by the Honourable Justice.

This program is part of a pan-India movement, with over 20 programs already conducted before Trichy and 19 more, including in Puducherry, in the pipeline. The initiative represents the first movement towards a nationwide gender sensitization effort.

Programme Outcomes and learning

The session concluded with the Vote of Thanks delivered by Mr. A.B. Nazeer Ali, Chief Judicial Magistrate, Trichy. A special acknowledgment was extended to Christopher, District Judge, Trichy, for his insightful welcome address that set a thoughtful tone for the proceedings.

The event successfully raised awareness and reaffirmed the collective responsibility of institutions and individuals in promoting gender equality and safety at workplaces, setting a valuable precedent for future initiatives.

The address by Dr. Justice Anitha Sumanth served as a powerful reminder of the work that still needs to be done in achieving gender equality. Her insights and proposals have laid the foundation for future outreach programs that can bring about real and measurable change across Tamil Nadu.

Total Number of Student Participated:		60
Venue	:	Inamkulathur
Time	:	10.00 A.M
No of Beneficiaried	:	Above 60
Sustainable Goal Involved	:	Yes (SDG 5- Gender Equality)
Program Coordinators	:	Ms.S.Jermina Rose

The Gender Champion Club of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women organised an outreach activity aimed at Awareness Pamphlet Distribution – Girl Child Welfare Schemes by Central &Tamil Nadu Government available for girl children in Tamil Nadu. As part of this initiative, an informative pamphlet/poster was prepared in both Tamil and English with colourful visuals to make the content accessible and engaging for the public.

Objective of the Programme

The primary objectives of the awareness activity were:

- To educate parents, students, and community members about the financial and social welfare schemes offered by the Tamil Nadu Government and the Central Government for girl children.

- To spread awareness about protection, education, health, and empowerment initiatives specifically designed to support girls.
- To encourage beneficiaries to utilise these schemes for the holistic development of the girl child.
- To promote gender sensitivity and empower women through knowledge dissemination.

Pamphlet Content Summary

The pamphlet highlighted major Tamil Nadu Government and Central Government schemes, including:

Tamil Nadu State Government Schemes

1. Chief Minister's Girl Child Protection Scheme
    - Financial assistance for education and long-term welfare.
2. Cradle Baby Scheme
    - Safe reception centres to prevent female infanticide.
3. State Girl Child Fixed Deposit Schemes
    - Fixed deposits ensuring future security for girl children.

Central Government Schemes

1. Sukanya Samriddhi Yojana
    - A savings scheme exclusively for girl children with high interest rates.
2. Beti Bachao Beti Padhao
    - A national campaign promoting education and protection of girl children.

- Details about contacting District Social Welfare Offices
- Required documents and eligibility criteria

The pamphlet used colourful icons, illustrations, and simple Tamil language for easy understanding..

Method of Implementation

- Attractive posters and pamphlets were designed and printed using high-quality images.
- Students of the Gender Champion Club visited nearby communities, schools, and public spaces to distribute the pamphlets.
- Short explanations were given to parents and young women regarding the benefits and eligibility of each scheme.
- Volunteers interacted with the public and clarified doubts regarding application procedures.

Outcome of the Programme

The awareness activity was highly successful with the following outcomes:

- Increased understanding of government schemes among rural and semi-urban families.
- Positive response from parents who were unaware of certain welfare benefits.
- Students developed communication, leadership, and social responsibility skills.
- Enhanced reputation of the institution through meaningful community engagement.

Feedback Received

Participants and community members conveyed the following feedback:

- The pamphlet design was visually appealing and easy to read.
- Information was clear, accurate, and very useful for parents of young girls.
- More such awareness activities should be conducted in different localities.
- The use of Tamil language helped reach a wider audience.

The awareness programme on "Girl Child Welfare Schemes" proved to be an impactful outreach initiative. By distributing well-designed pamphlets and engaging with the community, the Gender Champion Club successfully disseminated essential knowledge that can support the growth, development, and protection of girl children. The event fulfilled its objective of promoting gender equality and empowering families to make informed decisions for their daughters' future.

The Gender Champion Club of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women organized a one-day outreach programme titled "Awareness and Solutions for Adolescent Health Issues" at K. Kallikudy South. The programme aimed to create awareness among adolescents about

The initiative focused on promoting healthy lifestyle practices, personal hygiene, emotional balance, and mental health awareness among adolescents. The programme emphasized the importance of early awareness and preventive care in addressing adolescent health concerns.

Objectives of the Programme

The key objectives of the outreach activity were:

- To create awareness about common adolescent health issues and their impact on overall well-being.
- To educate adolescents on physical, mental, and emotional changes during adolescence.
- To promote personal hygiene, balanced nutrition, and healthy lifestyle habits.
- To encourage awareness about mental health, stress management, and emotional resilience.
- To eliminate stigma, misconceptions, and hesitation related to adolescent health discussions.
- To empower adolescents to practice self-care and share health-related knowledge within their families and communities.

Programme Summary

The programme commenced with a welcome address by the coordinators of the Gender Champion Club, followed by an introduction to the theme and its relevance to adolescent health. An informative and student-friendly session was conducted focusing on physical growth, emotional well-being, mental health awareness, and healthy daily practices.

Key Focus Areas:

- Physical Health:
    - Importance of nutrition and balanced diet
    - Personal and menstrual hygiene practices
- Mental and Emotional Health:
    - Managing stress and emotional changes
    - Building self-confidence and positive self-image
- Healthy Lifestyle Practices:
    - Importance of physical activity and adequate rest
    - Avoidance of unhealthy habits

The interactive nature of the session encouraged students to actively participate, ask questions, and openly discuss their concerns.

Outcome of the Programme

The outreach programme resulted in:

- Increased awareness and understanding of adolescent health issues among participants.
- Improved knowledge about personal hygiene, nutrition, and mental well-being.
- Enhanced confidence among students to discuss health-related concerns openly.
- Reduction in fear, stigma, and misconceptions related to adolescent health.
- Motivation among adolescents to adopt healthy lifestyle practices and share information with peers and family members.

Teachers and community members expressed their appreciation and emphasized the need for more such awareness programmes.

Feedback Received

Feedback from students and community members was overwhelmingly positive.

- Students found the session informative, engaging, and easy to understand.

- Participants appreciated the open discussion on mental and emotional health.
- Many expressed interest in attending similar sessions on nutrition, mental health, and adolescent well-being in the future.

The feedback highlighted that the programme was timely, impactful, and highly relevant to the health needs of adolescents.

The outreach activity on "Awareness and Solutions for Adolescent Health Issues" conducted by the Gender Champion Club of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women was a meaningful step toward promoting adolescent health awareness. The programme successfully empowered adolescents with essential knowledge, encouraged healthy practices, and fostered a supportive environment for discussing health-related issues.

Such initiatives play a vital role in nurturing informed, confident, and health-conscious youth, contributing to a healthier and more empowered society.
