The Department of Library and Library Club of AIMAN COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE FOR WOMEN organized a Library Tour on 01.09.2025. A total of 60 students and 6 staff members actively participated in the program.

The tour commenced at 9:30 a.m. from the college campus, Trichy, by bus. The first destination was the Saraswati Mahal Library at Thanjavur, where the team arrived at 11:00 a.m. Students explored the vast collection of rare manuscripts and books, gaining valuable insights into the rich heritage of Indian literature and knowledge preservation.

After the library visit, the group toured the Thanjavur Museum, where they viewed historical artifacts and cultural exhibits. This was followed by a visit to the park, providing a refreshing break for the students. The highlight of the tour was the visit to the magnificent Periya Koil (Brihadeeswarar Temple), a UNESCO World Heritage site, where students admired the architectural brilliance and cultural significance of the temple.

The return journey started in the evening, and the bus reached AIMAN COLLEGE, Trichy, at 7:30 p.m. The tour was not only educational but also enriching, giving the students an opportunity to blend knowledge, culture, and recreation.

Conclusion

The Library Tour organized by the Department of Library and Library Club proved to be a highly educational and enriching experience. Students were able to witness firsthand the treasures preserved in the Saraswati Mahal Library, appreciate the historical significance of the museum and Periya Koil, and enjoy recreational moments at the park. The tour not only enhanced their knowledge and cultural awareness but also encouraged teamwork, discipline, and curiosity.

Feedback from Students

- Students expressed great enthusiasm about visiting the Saraswati Mahal Library and exploring rare manuscripts and historical collections.
- Many felt that the tour helped them understand the importance of libraries in preserving knowledge and heritage.
- The visit to the Periya Koil inspired cultural pride and deepened their appreciation for Indian architecture and history.
- Students appreciated the well-planned schedule, guidance from staff members, and the opportunity to combine learning with leisure.
- Several participants suggested organizing similar tours in the future to other historical libraries and cultural sites for continued learning.

Overall, the library tour was a great success, providing participants with memorable experiences, academic enrichment, and cultural exposure.

Participants	: Female Non-Teaching Maintenance Staff of Aiman College

On the occasion of International Literacy Day, a special programme titled "Lighting the Lamp of Learning" (அறிவொளி தீபம் ஏற்றுதல்) was organized on 8th September 2025 at 10.00 a.m. in LH 1, Aiman College of Arts and Science for Women, Trichy – 21.

The programme was specially arranged for the female non-teaching maintenance staff of the college, to create awareness about the importance of literacy and lifelong learning.

The session was conducted by our resource person, Dr. S. Kanagasundari, Librarian and IQAC Coordinator, who delivered an inspiring talk on the value of education in everyday life.

She emphasized the importance of female education, highlighting how learning helps women gain self-confidence, independence, and dignity. She encouraged participants to motivate their children to study well and explained why education is a key factor in improving family and social life.

Dr. Kanagasundari also shared her personal educational journey, describing the challenges she faced and how perseverance and determination helped her succeed. Her simple yet powerful words deeply motivated the participants.

The staff actively listened and appreciated the session, which not only enhanced their awareness but also encouraged them to take small steps towards continuous learning in their daily lives.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the resource person and participants. The event was successful in spreading the message that literacy is not just about reading and writing, but about opening doors to a brighter and more empowered future.

Feedback & Suggestions

- The maintenance female non-teaching staff expressed that the session was simple, motivating, and easy to understand.
- They appreciated the real-life examples and personal experiences shared by the resource person.
- Participants felt encouraged to support their children's education and to value their own learning journey.
- They suggested conducting more such awareness sessions in Tamil/local language, so that everyone can easily connect and participate.
- Participants also requested basic literacy skill workshops (reading, writing, financial literacy, digital literacy) in the future.
- The programme was well-received, and participants expressed gratitude for including them in an educational initiative.

Report on Seminar

Title	: Photography Contest & Seminar on "Tourism Through My Lens"
Date	: 15.09.2025
Time	: 10.00 a.m.
Venue	: Library Reference Hall, AIMAN COLLEGE
Resource Person	: Dr. S. Kanagasundari, Librarian & IQAC Coordinator
Participants	: 50 UG Students

The IQAC and Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) in association with Department of Library and Library Club of AIMAN College jointly organized a seminar and photography contest titled "Tourism Through My Lens" was successfully conducted on 15th September 2025 at the Library Reference Hall of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women, Trichy-21. The event was organized with the aim of encouraging young students to explore tourism, culture, and heritage through the art of photography.

The event began with a warm welcome address, followed by an insightful session led by the resource person, Dr. S. Kanagasundari, Librarian and IQAC Coordinator. She addressed the relevance of photography in documenting cultural narratives and promoting tourism through personal perspectives. Her session emphasized the importance of visual storytelling and how students can use photography as a medium to express their travel experiences, creativity, and observation skills.

A total of 50 undergraduate students participated in the seminar and the contest. Students were encouraged to submit original photographs based on the theme "Tourism Through My Lens" along with a short description of their work. Entries showcased diverse locations, cultural elements, and tourist experiences through vibrant and meaningful images.

The best photographs were selected based on composition, relevance to the theme, creativity, and storytelling. Selected entries were displayed in the library space and acknowledged with certificates of appreciation.

The seminar not only enhanced the creative engagement of students but also promoted awareness about the role of tourism in cultural exchange and learning.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by the organizing team, expressing gratitude to the resource person, student participants, and staff members who contributed to the success of the program.

Feedback

The seminar and photography contest received overwhelmingly positive feedback from participants. Students appreciated the opportunity to express their creativity through photography while engaging with the broader theme of tourism and cultural awareness.

Many participants noted that the session by Dr. S. Kanagasundari was highly informative and inspiring, especially in understanding the deeper role of photography in documentation and storytelling. The interactive nature of the seminar encouraged student participation and sparked interest in visual communication as an academic and creative pursuit.

Some students also expressed interest in attending more such programs that blend art, academics, and real-world relevance. Constructive feedback included requests for more hands-on photography workshops and extended time for photo submissions in future events.

Conclusion

The "Tourism Through My Lens" seminar and photography contest was a resounding success, combining learning, creativity, and student engagement in an enriching format. The event not only provided a platform for budding photographers to showcase their talents but also highlighted the power of visual media in promoting tourism and cultural appreciation.

Through this initiative, students gained valuable insights into photography as a tool for storytelling and documentation. The enthusiastic participation and high-quality submissions reflected the talent and interest among students in creative expression.

The Department looks forward to organizing more such interdisciplinary events that encourage learning beyond the classroom and help students discover and develop their unique voices.

REPORT ON CHILDREN'S DAY OUTREACH PROGRAM

1.	Name of the Program	: Empowering Young Minds – Children's Day Book Donation Drive.
2.	Date of the Program	: 14.11.2025
3.	Total No. of Students Participated	: 100
4.	Staff Coordinators	: Dr.S.Kanagasundari & Ms.P.Sivaranjani
5.	Place	: Trichy
6.	Activity Type	: Outreach Program
7.	Venue	: Nehru Memorial School, Muthukulam

Organized by: Department of Library & Library Club in association with Unnat Bharat Abhiyan

On the occasion of Children's Day, the AIMAN COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE FOR WOMEN, Tiruchirappalli, through its Library & Library Club in association with the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell, organized a meaningful and impactful Outreach Program on 14th November 2025 at Nehru Memorial School, Muthukulam. The program was titled "Empowering Young Minds – Children's Day Book Donation Drive." The initiative aimed to foster educational motivation, strengthen community engagement, and promote a reading culture among school children.

The outreach team comprised Dr. S. Kanagasundari (Librarian), Ms. P. Sivaranjani (Assistant Librarian), and Mrs. Aneesh Fathima (Club Member). Their dedicated involvement ensured the smooth conduct of the activities planned for the day. The program was designed not only as a celebratory event but also as an opportunity to enrich young learners with resources and encouragement.

The event commenced with an enthusiastic welcome by the school faculty and students. A series of competitions were organized for the students to celebrate Children's Day in a meaningful way. These activities encouraged creativity, confidence, and active participation. Students took part with great interest, showcasing their talents in drawing, storytelling, reading, and other skill-based activities. To recognize and motivate the participants, books, stationery kits, and appreciation certificates were awarded to the winners. This gesture aimed to cultivate reading habits and inspire students to pursue academic excellence.

One of the highlights of the program was an inspiring motivational session by Dr. S. Kanagasundari, who addressed the students on the importance of education in shaping their future. She emphasized the role of reading in developing knowledge, discipline, and confidence. Her talk encouraged the students to dream big, set goals, and work consistently towards achieving them. Her interaction created a positive and lasting impact on the young minds present.

The School Correspondent expressed heartfelt appreciation for the efforts taken by Aiman College. He acknowledged the significance of such outreach programs in bridging educational gaps and strengthening school–college collaboration. The support and cooperation extended by the school were instrumental in the success of the program.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the contributions of the organizers, school authorities, and enthusiastic students. The outreach team returned with a deep sense of satisfaction, knowing that their efforts had positively contributed to the academic and emotional well-being of the children.

Overall, the Children's Day Outreach Program provided a meaningful platform for interaction, motivation, and educational support. It successfully reinforced the importance of community engagement and highlighted the role of educational institutions in nurturing young minds for a brighter future.

Library Club

The Library Club of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women, in association with National Service Scheme (NSS – BHUMI) and Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA), successfully organized an outreach programme titled "Bringing Books, Building Minds" on 09.12.2025 at Ariyavur & Periyanayagi Chathram, the adopted villages.

The programme was conducted with the objective of creating awareness about the importance of reading habits and education among village children and the general public. Student volunteers actively participated in the programme and interacted with school students and villagers. Books were distributed to children to encourage learning and improve literacy levels.

More than 40 beneficiaries actively took part and received valuable learning support through this programme. The event also contributed towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals, especially SDG 17 – Partnerships for the Goals, by strengthening the partnership between the institution and the rural community.

The programme was successfully coordinated by Dr. S. Kanagasundari and Ms. P. Sivaranjani with the support of faculty members and dedicated student volunteers.

Outcome of the Programme

- Promoted reading habits among rural children.
- Improved awareness about education and libraries.
- Strengthened community–institution relationship.
- Enhanced social responsibility among students.
- Supported rural educational development.

Conclusion

The programme "Bringing Books, Building Minds" was a meaningful outreach initiative jointly organized by the Library Club, NSS (BHUMI), and UBA. It created a positive impact on the rural community and motivated students to serve society through educational empowerment.

Feedback from the Beneficiaries

The beneficiaries expressed their heartfelt appreciation to the organizers of the programme "Bringing Books, Building Minds" conducted by the Library Club, NSS (BHUMI), and Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA). The children and villagers were very happy to receive books and learning materials, which they found useful and motivating.

Many students shared that the programme inspired them to read more regularly and improved their interest in education. Parents appreciated the efforts of the college students in guiding their children and spreading awareness about the importance of education and libraries.

The villagers also conveyed that such programmes are highly beneficial for rural communities and requested the institution to organize more educational and awareness programmes in the future. Overall, the feedback from the beneficiaries was highly positive and encouraging, indicating the success and social impact of the programme.
