About Programme

The Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) was inaugurated for the First Year BBA students with the aim of creating awareness about electoral rights, responsibilities, and democratic participation among young voters. The inauguration began with a welcome address, where the importance of informed voting and active citizenship was highlighted.

Dr. N. Fiverose briefed the students about the objectives of the Electoral Literacy Club, emphasizing its role in spreading knowledge about the electoral process, voter registration, and ethical voting practices. Students were encouraged to actively participate in the activities of the club, which will include debates, quizzes, pledge-taking, awareness campaigns, and mock elections.

As part of the inauguration, an orientation session was conducted to sensitize students on the significance of voting in a democracy and their responsibility as future voters. Interactive activities were organized to engage students, making the session lively and thought-provoking.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms.S.Raliya Begum, appreciating the support of the management, faculty members, and enthusiastic participation of the students. The inauguration of the Electoral Literacy Club marked a meaningful beginning for the First Year BBA students, preparing them to be responsible and informed citizens in the democratic process.

Programme Outcomes and learning

- Awareness of Electoral Process – Students learn how elections are conducted in India, from voter registration to the declaration of results.
- Understanding of Rights and Duties – They gain clarity on their voting rights and the responsibility of making informed choices.
- Practical Knowledge through Activities – Activities like mock elections, debates, quizzes, and pledge-taking give them hands-on experience of democratic practices.
- Civic Responsibility – The club insist the importance of ethical voting, reducing the influence of misinformation and malpractice.
- Leadership and Communication Skills – By organizing and participating in events, students enhance their public speaking, teamwork, and leadership abilities.
- Confidence as First-Time Voters – The initiative prepares them to cast their vote responsibly once they reach voting age, making them confident and informed participants in democracy.

Student Feedback

The First Year BBA students actively participated in the Electoral Literacy Club inauguration and shared their views with enthusiasm. Many students expressed that the session was highly informative and eye-opening, as it gave them a clear understanding of the voting process and their role as future voters. They appreciated the interactive activities such as discussions and awareness exercises, which made the learning both interesting and practical.

Several students mentioned that the program boosted their confidence as first-time voters, and they felt motivated to exercise their voting rights responsibly. They also stated that the club will help them stay updated about electoral reforms and strengthen their sense of civic responsibility. Overall, the students valued the inauguration program as a meaningful initiative that not only enhanced their knowledge but also inspired them to become responsible and informed citizens.

3. Description of the Activity

The program was organized at Periyanayakichatram under the Electoral Literacy Club in association with Unnat Bharat Abhiyan.

The session included interactive discussions, storytelling, and examples from literature that emphasize democratic values, justice, and the importance of voting.

Staff coordinators explained how literature has historically promoted social awareness and inspired democratic thinking. Participants were encouraged to reflect on their role in strengthening democracy through active voting and civic responsibility.

The public engaged positively with the discussions and expressed interest in the theme of literature and democracy.

4. Outcomes of the Activity

The program achieved notable outcomes:

- Participants gained a deeper understanding of the connection between literature, democratic values, and voting.
- The session motivated citizens to participate actively in the electoral process.
- Improved awareness about the importance of each individual vote in shaping society.
- Strengthened community engagement with civic and democratic themes.

5. Feedback and Observations

Participants shared that the session was insightful and different from regular awareness programs, as it connected literature with democracy.

The coordinators observed active involvement and interest from the public.

Overall, the program was successful in promoting democratic awareness and encouraging responsible citizenship.

Voters' Day Pledge – English Translation

"I pledge that I will uphold the democratic traditions of my country and the dignity of free, fair, and peaceful elections.

I will value my right to vote and will always vote in every election fearlessly and without being influenced by any inducement, threat, or coercion.

I will remain informed about electoral processes and will actively participate in strengthening democracy.

I will encourage others to exercise their voting rights and will contribute to creating awareness about the importance of voting in society.

I solemnly affirm my commitment to the principles of democracy and responsible citizenship."

Activity Type	: Awareness / Rally

1. INTRODUCTION

The Electoral Literacy Club of Aiman College of Arts and Science for Women organized a SVEEP Mega Event 2026 – Rally on 25th March 2026 at K K Nagar. This initiative was conducted under the Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) program, which aims to spread awareness about the importance of voting and democratic participation.

The rally focused on educating the public, especially first-time voters, about their rights and responsibilities in a democratic society. It also emphasized the importance of maintaining accurate voter information and actively participating in elections to strengthen the nation's democratic framework.

2. OBJECTIVES OF THE ACTIVITY

The rally was organized with the following objectives:

- To educate the general public about the importance of voting in a democratic country
- To motivate eligible citizens, especially youth, to enroll as voters
- To create awareness about ethical voting practices and discourage malpractices
- To highlight the role of every individual in shaping the government through voting
- To support the goals of the SVEEP initiative in increasing voter turnout

3. DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITY

The rally began at 9:30 AM at K K Nagar with the participation of students, faculty members, and Electoral Literacy Club volunteers. The event was coordinated by Dr. N. Fiverose and Dr. S. Rahya Begum under the guidance of the Principal, Dr. M. Munafir Hussaina.

Students carried colorful placards, banners, and posters displaying meaningful slogans related to voter awareness. They marched through the main streets of K K Nagar, attracting the attention of the public and spreading awareness about the importance of voting.

During the rally:

- Students raised slogans promoting voter participation
- Awareness pamphlets were distributed to the public
- Volunteers explained how to register as voters and update voter details
- Emphasis was given to the importance of voting responsibly and without influence

The rally was conducted in an organized and disciplined manner, ensuring maximum reach and impact among the local residents.

4. OUTCOMES OF THE ACTIVITY

The rally had a positive impact on both the participants and the public. The major outcomes include:

- The public gained a better understanding of their voting rights and responsibilities
- Many individuals showed interest in voter registration and updating their details
- Awareness about ethical voting and the importance of participation increased
- Students developed a sense of civic responsibility and social awareness
- The event contributed to strengthening democratic values at the grassroots level

5. FEEDBACK AND OBSERVATIONS

The feedback received from participants and the public was highly encouraging. Students expressed that the rally helped them understand the significance of voting and their role in society.

Members of the public appreciated the initiative and found the awareness messages useful and informative. Some individuals actively interacted with the volunteers to clarify their doubts regarding voter registration.

The coordinators observed enthusiastic participation from students and noted that the rally successfully fulfilled its purpose. Overall, the event was well-organized and impactful in promoting electoral awareness.
