REPORT ON AUTHOR'S TALK

Event: Author's Talk

Organized by: The Book Club & PG Department of English

Date: January 3, 2025

Chief Guest: Mr. PORCHEZHIAN SUBRAMANIAN (PORCHES)

On January 3, 2025, the Book Club and PG Department of English of Aiman College of Arts and Science for Women celebrated New Year with 'AUTHOR'S TALK' an inspiring event focused on the creative writing process, and insights into the literary world. This event aimed to foster deeper connections between authors and readers and provide a platform for thought-provoking conversations about literature. The program commenced at 11:30 am at college seminar hall with an invocation, seeking blessings from Holy Quran by M. Safia Banu- II B.A English and followed by Welcome Address and chief guest introduction by Ms. S. Grace Sofia, Assistant Professor of English.

The Guest of Honour was Mr. PORCHEZHIAN SUBRAMANIAN (PORCHES), Novelist, Poet and Content Writer, The Hindu. The Resource person has truly enlightened and left a lasting impression with his expertise. He elucidated the process of content writing, guiding its work and its relevance in today's world. His advice to read at least one book every month inspired to develop a consistent reading habit and unique take on selecting books based on the genres of movies was more relatable and enjoyable. The thought provoking quote, "The universe conspires to give us what we truly want and guides us there," was incredibly inspiring, encouraging pursuing dreams with confidence. The concept of reverse psychology shared, showing how negativity can sometimes lead us to positivity, was both intriguing and insightful. His perspective on life as a story to feel and live fully resonated deeply. The attendees were thankful for introduction to the fourth person narrative, a fascinating approach that broadened understanding of storytelling techniques. His motto, 'Believe your story, believe your content,' is something inspiring. The event well received by attendees, with many feedback questions expressing their enthusiasm for future author talks. There was particular praise for the guest openness and the interactive nature of the event. The Master of Ceremony was took over by Ms. M. Shafan Fathima of II B.A English, the Book Club Secretary. The Vote of thanks proposed by Ms .O. M. Jumana Hassen, Assistant Professor of English. This event left with a deeper understanding of the books discussed and felt more inspired in own reading and writing pursuits.

Respected Sir,

Greetings!

Subject: Request for Library and Museum Visit for Students

We are pleased to inform you that as part of our academic collaboration under the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between our institutions, we would like to organize a visit to your esteemed college's library and museum for our students. A total of 300 students, accompanied by faculty members, are scheduled to participate in this educational visit. We believe this visit will provide our students with valuable exposure to the resources and facilities available at St. Joseph's College, fostering their academic and cultural growth.

Thank you for your continued cooperation and support in enhancing the learning experience of our students. We look forward to your positive response.

Report on Library and Museum Visit organized by the Book Club & PG Department of English

As part of the MoU between our institution and St. Joseph's College, Trichy, the Book Club and the Department of English successfully organized an educational visit to the St. Joseph's College Library and Museum. This initiative aimed to expose students to an extensive collection of academic resources and historical artifacts, enriching their knowledge beyond classroom learning. The visit provided students with the opportunity to explore rare manuscripts, archival materials, and digital resources housed in the library. The museum visit further enhanced their learning experience, offering insights into historical and cultural artifacts preserved by the institution. The sessions were highly interactive, as students engaged in discussions with the library and museum staff, gaining a deeper understanding of research methodologies and the significance of documentation. This initiative was a direct outcome of our MoU with St. Joseph's College, strengthening academic collaboration between the two institutions. This visit not only broadened the students' academic perspectives but also reinforced the importance of self-directed learning and research. We look forward to organizing more such initiatives under the MoU with St. Joseph's College to foster intellectual growth and academic collaboration.

The Book Club and the PG Department of English of Aiman College of Arts and Science for Women celebrated National Read a Book Day on 15 September 2025 at 11:30 a.m. in the college Seminar Hall. The programme was attended by about 100 students.The event commenced with Qirath by Ms. M. Safia Banu of III B.A. English. Ms. S. Grace Sofia, Assistant Professor of English and Book Club Coordinator, delivered the welcome address and introduced the Chief Guest. The Head of the Department of English Mrs.Meena Mahadevan and IQAC Head and Librarian Dr.S.Kanaga Sundari, honoured the guest of the day, Mr. M. Karthikeyan, Assistant Professor of English, Sudharsan College of Arts and Science, Perumanadu, Pudukkottai.In his keynote address, Mr. Karthikeyan delivered an inspiring and practical talk. Drawing on Brian Tracy's Eat That Frog, he stressed overcoming procrastination, prioritising important tasks, and setting both short- and long-term goals using the ABC method. He highlighted that one's name is one's identity and encouraged the audience to approach life one task at a time.

Referring to Jeff Keller's Attitude is Everything, he explained how attitude shapes destiny, urging everyone to avoid negative thoughts and carry themselves with confidence. He motivated students to transform challenges into stepping stones, embrace consistency, develop soft skills, and value life stories alongside academic degrees. Emphasising women's independence, he advocated for daughters to be part of family decisions and to cultivate a charismatic attitude. His reminder that "a dedicated person is better than a hundred who are merely curious," and that reading books is a pathway to success, left a lasting impression.The session concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Ms. O. M. Jumana Haseen, Assistant Professor of English and Book Club Coordinator.The celebration successfully underscored the importance of reading and personal growth, leaving the participants motivated to pursue their goals with determination and a positive mindset.
