BOOK CLUB

03.05.2021

Book review was organized by Book Club of AIMAAN College of Arts & Science for Women on 03.05.2021. Ms.O.M.Jumana Haseen, Assistant Professor of English welcomed the gathering and introduced the chief guest. The Guest Speaker Ms.K.Jasima Nilofar, M.A, M.Phil, NET, Assistant Professor of English, Cauvery College for Women, Trichy, reviewed the novel The Plague by Albert Camus as 'A Pandemic Reading'. It is a haunting tale of human resilience and hope in the face of unrelieved horror in North African Coastal town. It also ravages the epidemic Plague in the city of Oran. The speaker emphasized the theme of absurdism, illustrated the characteristics, rational thinking, exile & imprisonment from the novel. She also explained how the Plague became a symbol of harsh, meaningless universe and ultimately suffering and death. She concluded with a key note of further reading, "Pandemic and literature are inter-connected".

Ms.H. Nazeela Begam of II B.A, AIMAAN College of Arts & Science for Women reviewed R.L.Stevenson's Treasure Island. She analyzed the experience of adventure through the novel. The novel is about quest for adventure, mutiny and life of pirates. She shared PPT to understand the characteristics, thematic and symbols (treasure map, flag, rum, black spot, pirate's song) used by the author. The session came to an end with a Vote of thanks by Ms.A.Kokila, Assistant Professor of English.
