PTA REPORT -2024

The PTA meeting was held on 06.09.2024 at 1.30 pm-4.30 pm for all the departments to discuss various issues related to student academics, and college events. The Principal addressed the parents and spoke about infrastructure development plans, including updated classrooms and facilities. The meeting was productive, with active participation from parents, teachers, and administrators. All Department faculty reported on student academic performance including CIA - I marks, highlighting areas of improvement and strategies for support. Upcoming events, such as the cultural festival and sports day, were discussed. Concerns about student safety were addressed, and measures to enhance security were discussed. Teachers and parents expressed interest in establishing a mentorship program for students.

A feedback mechanism was proposed to allow parents to share concerns and suggestions.

The PTA meeting was a success, with open communication and collaboration among parents, teachers, and administrators. Overall PTA meeting was organized by PTA coordinator Mrs. D. Lena Vino and members.
