Exclusive Virtual Power Seminar On Effective Skill Developing Methods

In order to prepare students to enter the workforce or further their education, & to develop other critical skills necessary for effective and productive professionals AIMAN College in association with ICT academy organized virtual power seminar on Effective skill developing methods on 25th July 2020 from 11.00am to 12.00pm. The speaker of the day was Mr.Durai Babu Selvaraj, Senior Manager (L&D), Kone Elevators (P)Ltd. The session was started by Mr. Allan Joy, Relationship Manager, ICT Academy followed by Ms.B.Farhan, Management Executive's welcome address and the technical support was provided by Ms.A.Majitha Banu.

Mr.Durai Babu Selvaraj, Senior Manager (L&D), Kone Elevators (P)Ltd stated that,Skills are as important as educational degree because ,we cannot apply for a job without required educational qualification, with a lack of necessary skills he discussed the top 10 skill that students should develop.

1. Communication Skills

Effective communication skills are a prerequisite for career development. Because communication is a must in everywhere. Better Communication Skills will definitely place you some steps forward in a career search. Moreover, you can also Learn Public Speaking Skills for Better Communication. Keep in mind that without good communication skills you can hardly get a better career scope.

2. Technical Skills

Technical skills will not only boost up your career opportunities but also Generate High Income in Career. So, first of all, identify your field of interest in technical skills. Then, start to learn and develop them gradually. Be efficient in some specific technical skills that you like most. For example, if you like writing, be a skilled writer. You can sell at a high rate your writing skills.

If you like doing web design, learn web design skills. Both writing and design skills are in high demand in the job market it bears importance to skill development in students in fact.

3. Soft Skills

Soft Skills also have great importance for skill development in students for a career. Because soft skills provide a huge career opportunity of course. Soft skills, for example, leadership, problem-solving, self-motivation, time, and pressure management are significantly important for a better career.

4. Hard Skills

People who are experts in hard skills like marketing, project management can easily find a job presently in spite of hard competition in the job market. Moreover, they earn more. Therefore, learning hard skills for a better career seems essential. Because it ensures what you deserve for your skills.

5. Life Skills

Life skills mean skills that you require to make the most out of life. A skill that is useful in life can be considered a life skill. When you are able to deal well and effectively with the problems and challenges of life, definitely you have better life skills. Decision making, interpersonal skills, critical thinking, self-awareness are the best examples of life skills.

6. Management Skills

Effective management skills will certainly increase your career prospects. Management is actually a tough and challenging task. Managers are in the top position in any company or business organization. Therefore, necessarily, managers are well paid. So, we put the high importance of skill development in students in the managerial area.

7. Technological Skills

Skills in technology is a must in the present era. We believe that it is a precondition like your educational qualification for a career. In fact, technology skills are worth more than educational requirements. Because you can get a good job with good practical skills. That is not possible with an only educational qualification.

8. Creative & Innovative Skills

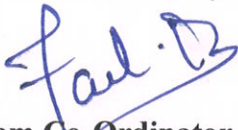

Ever, people with creative and innovative skills are the pioneer. They are not only on high-demand but also are respected too. Who are creative and innovative can lead the company, organization, and eventually the era. So, try to increase your creativity in student life with innovative works like a science fair, project presentation, etc.

9. Cooperation

Cooperation refers to the process of groups of people working together for a common and mutual interest. Basically, cooperation and teamwork make success real. If you do a job for a company in the future, you are just cooperating with that company. Therefore, you should develop these skills to achieve your desired career.

10. Conflict Resolution

Conflicts and tensions arise at any moment in the corporate area. Conflict can arise based on interest, position, rank, or any other issue that you might not think before. Someone might be ill-wishers of you. There also may be personality conflicts with your colleague. So, you have to resolute these to carry on your job.
