Librarians' Day

Introductory Session –

National Librarians' Day is observed on 12 August every year to commemorate the birth anniversary of Padmashri Dr S. R. Ranganathan (1892-1972), who is considered as father of library science in India. Dr. Ranganathan dedicated his entire life to library profession in India leaving a rich legacy. 131st birth anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, the Aiman College Library of Aiman College of Arts and Science for Women celebrated National Librarian's Day on 09 August 2023.

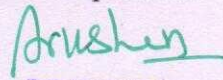

The National Librarian Day started sharp at 12pm. The programme began with a warm welcome by the host Ms.Hana of III BCA.

The programme began with a Prayer song. Welcome address and Introduction of the programme was given by Dr S.Kanagasundari, Librarian, Aiman College of arts and science for women. She clarified the purpose of the programme.

Reading improves thinking ability and analytical skills said Dr AVK Shanthi, Principal, Aiman college of Arts and Science for Women, who was the Chief Guest of the celebration. She praised the outstanding contributions of Dr S.R. Ranganathan to the development of libraries from an unorganized library to a more systematic process of arranging and preserving the treasure house of knowledge. Being a renowned thinker and a teacher Dr S R Ranganathan was a multifaceted personality, travelled to various countries to understand the methodology of compilation, classification and catalogue. Dr AVK Shanthi stressed the need to give access to anyone in need of a book, since every book has a reader. She advised the student community to read a book to improve vocabulary, mental ability and communication skills.

Aiman College Library organized Essay writing (Tamil and English), Poem writing, Drawing, English and Tamil Speech and Writing words in minutes competitions during the month of July and prizes were distributed on 9th August 2023. Ms.S.Shabana of II N&D briefly narrative the live and achievements of Dr.S.R Ranganathan and elaborated on the importance of reading habits.
