The inaugural session started at 11 a.m. At the outset, the program began with a warm welcome by the host, Mrs. Y. Ferunisha, Assistant Professor of Arabic, followed by a prayer song. The welcome speech and introduction of the program were given by Dr. S. Kanagasundari, librarian at AIMAAN College of Arts and Science for Women, who proposed the program and clarified its purpose.

The objectives of this seminar were to discuss and understand philosophy and ethics. It is often motivated by a desire to provide an alternative or to think about alternative ways of providing education to ensure that learning never stops.

Dr. G.T. Kohila, Assistant Professor, Department of Library and Information Science, Pondicherry University, Pondicherry, was the resource person. He discussed the different program outcomes (PO), course outcomes (CO), writing POs, writing COs, and various assessment publication tools. He also deeply explained the types of philosophy, who's honest in this society, and how to publish a paper publication. She discussed the scope of journals, the importance of research, the characteristics of philosophy, personality ethics, publication ethics keywords, etc. The national webinar provided a best practice for PG students, and it was a very innovative class for faculty members of various departments of our college who attended the webinar. At the end, the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Sharmila, Assistant Librarian, AIMAAN College of Arts and Science for Women, Trichy. The program was concluded successfully at 1 p.m.
