More than 40 beneficiaries actively took part and received valuable learning support through this programme. The event also contributed towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals, especially SDG 17 – Partnerships for the Goals, by strengthening the partnership between the institution and the rural community.

The programme was successfully coordinated by Dr. S. Kanagasundari and Ms. P. Sivaranjani with the support of faculty members and dedicated student volunteers.

Outcome of the Programme

- Promoted reading habits among rural children.
- Improved awareness about education and libraries.
- Strengthened community–institution relationship.
- Enhanced social responsibility among students.
- Supported rural educational development.

Conclusion

The programme "Bringing Books, Building Minds" was a meaningful outreach initiative jointly organized by the Library Club, NSS (BHUMI), and UBA. It created a positive impact on the rural community and motivated students to serve society through educational empowerment.

Feedback from the Beneficiaries

The beneficiaries expressed their heartfelt appreciation to the organizers of the programme "Bringing Books, Building Minds" conducted by the Library Club, NSS (BHUMI), and Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA). The children and villagers were very happy to receive books and learning materials, which they found useful and motivating.

Many students shared that the programme inspired them to read more regularly and improved their interest in education. Parents appreciated the efforts of the college students in guiding their children and spreading awareness about the importance of education and libraries.

The villagers also conveyed that such programmes are highly beneficial for rural communities and requested the institution to organize more educational and awareness programmes in the future. Overall, the feedback from the beneficiaries was highly positive and encouraging, indicating the success and social impact of the programme.
