Organized by: Department of Library & Library Club in association with Unnat Bharat Abhiyan

On the occasion of Children's Day, the AIMA COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE FOR WOMEN, Tiruchirappalli, through its Library & Library Club in association with the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell, organized a meaningful and impactful Outreach Program on 14th November 2025 at Nehru Memorial School, Muthukulam. The program was titled "Empowering Young Minds – Children's Day Book Donation Drive." The initiative aimed to foster educational motivation, strengthen community engagement, and promote a reading culture among school children.

The outreach team comprised Dr. S. Kanagasundari (Librarian), Ms. P. Sivaranjani (Assistant Librarian), and Mrs. Aneesh Fathima (Club Member). Their dedicated involvement ensured the smooth conduct of the activities planned for the day. The program was designed not only as a celebratory event but also as an opportunity to enrich young learners with resources and encouragement.

The event commenced with an enthusiastic welcome by the school faculty and students. A series of competitions were organized for the students to celebrate Children's Day in a meaningful way. These activities encouraged creativity, confidence, and active participation. Students took part with great interest, showcasing their talents in drawing, storytelling, reading, and other skill-based activities. To recognize and motivate the participants, books, stationery kits, and appreciation certificates were awarded to the winners. This gesture aimed to cultivate reading habits and inspire students to pursue academic excellence.

One of the highlights of the program was an inspiring motivational session by Dr. S. Kanagasundari, who addressed the students on the importance of education in shaping their future. She emphasized the role of reading in developing knowledge, discipline, and confidence. Her talk encouraged the students to dream big, set goals, and work consistently towards achieving them. Her interaction created a positive and lasting impact on the young minds present.

The School Correspondent expressed heartfelt appreciation for the efforts taken by Aiman College. He acknowledged the significance of such outreach programs in bridging educational gaps and strengthening school-college collaboration. The support and cooperation extended by the school were instrumental in the success of the program.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the contributions of the organizers, school authorities, and enthusiastic students. The outreach team returned with a deep sense of satisfaction, knowing that their efforts had positively contributed to the academic and emotional well-being of the children.

Overall, the Children's Day Outreach Program provided a meaningful platform for interaction, motivation, and educational support. It successfully reinforced the importance of community engagement and highlighted the role of educational institutions in nurturing young minds for a brighter future.
