About Seminar

Cancer remains one of the leading causes of mortality worldwide. With increasing prevalence due to lifestyle, environmental, and genetic factors, there is a crucial need for proactive education and preventive strategies. This National Level Seminar aims to raise awareness, promote preparedness, and encourage preventive actions among students, researchers, healthcare professionals, and the general public.

The seminar will bring together medical experts, nutritionists, researchers, and public health specialists to discuss the latest insights and strategies in cancer prevention. It will offer a platform for sharing knowledge, evidence-based practices, and community-level interventions to reduce cancer risk and promote early detection.

E-certificates will be issued to all participants.

The International seminar commenced with Prayer by Ms. Fathima Rasheedha, III N&D setting a thoughtful tone for the day's discussions, A warm Welcome Address by Dr. M. Munafur Hussaina, the esteemed Principal of AIMAAN College, Trichy, who highlighted the importance of prayer in fostering inner peace and communal harmony.

Due to some Medical emergency sessions where shuffled.

Session 1: "The Art of Healing: Reflections on the Medical Field"

Resource Person: Dr. B. Anis, MBBS, MS, MRCS, MCh

Consultant Surgical Oncologist, Kauvery Medical Centre, Trichy.

This Session began with a warm welcome and Chief Guest Address by Mrs. M. Jasmin Uhanitha, Vice Principal and Head of the Department of FSM&D, AIMAAN College, Trichy. The session featured an enlightening talk by Dr. B. Anis, Consultant Surgical Oncologist, KMC, Trichy. He delivered an insightful presentation focusing on the psychological and clinical journey of cancer patients. He emphasized the importance of empathy, patient support systems, and technological advancements in surgical oncology. The session shed light on how the art of healing is as crucial as the science behind it. He highlighted the importance of treating patients holistically addressing not only their physical alignments but also their emotional and psychological needs. Drawing from his vast experience in surgical oncology, he shared real life stories that showcased the power of human connection in the healing process. He also highlights the need for continuous learning and effective communication in building trust with patients. The session left a lasting impact on the audience, encouraging aspiring medical professionals to combine clinical excellence with a deep sense of humanity in their practice. After finishing the session concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks by Mrs. Sabaira Farvin, Assistant Professor, Department of FSM&D, AIMAAN College appreciating the contributions of the speakers and the active participation of participants.

session featured an insightful presentation by Mrs. M. Jasmin Uhanitha, Vice Principal and Head of FSM&D, AIMAAN College, who spoke on the role of Foods plays an important role in Cancer management. Her address was both inspiring and thought-provoking. She emphasized the healing potential of specific nutrients and food groups. She discussed evidence-based diets that support immunity and aid recovery for cancer patients. The session bridged the gap between dietetics and disease management, inspiring nutrition-based cancer interventions. She discussed the importance of including plant-based proteins such as beans, legumes, nuts, and seeds, as well as healthy fats like olive oil and avocados, in the diet. She also includes the value of colourful fruits and vegetables rich in phytonutrients, which can reduce inflammation and potentially slow cancer progression. The session provided practical advice on choosing whole grains, lean proteins, and a variety of nutrient-dense foods to aid recovery and promote overall well-being during cancer therapy. At the end of the session, a concluded with a sincere Vote of Thanks by Ms. P. Sivaranjani, Assistant Librarian, Department of Library, AIMAAN College who expressed gratitude to the speakers and participants for their valuable contributions.

Session 3: "Cancer Causing Foods"

Resource Person: Ms. Kamar Afshan,

PICPAX, Ghurair Centre, Deira, Dubai

This Session began with a warm Welcome and Chief Guest Address by Ms. S. Indhumathi, Assistant Professor, Department of FSM&D, AIMAAN College who emphasized glorious welcoming. The session featured Ms. Kamar Afshan from PICPAX, Ghurair Centre, Deira, Dubai, as the Resource Person. She delivered an engaging and insightful talk on "Cancer causing foods", drawing from her international experience. She conducted an informative session on "Cancer Causing Foods," focusing on dietary choices that may elevate cancer risk. She explained that processed meats such as sausages, ham, and bacon—are strongly linked to an increased risk of cancers like colorectal and stomach cancer due to carcinogenic compounds formed during processing. Ms. Afshan also highlighted the dangers of fried and charred foods, which can produce harmful substances like acrylamide and Polycyclic Aromatic Hydrocarbons (PAHs) when cooked at high temperatures, potentially contributing to cancer development. Additionally, she discussed the risks associated with excessive consumption of red meat, alcohol, and highly processed foods, all of which have been identified by research as contributing factors in various cancers. The session emphasized
