Report on One-Day Workshop on Comparative Analysis of Reference Management Tools

The Department of Library, AIMAAN College of Arts and Science for Women, Tiruchirappalli – 620 021, organized a One-Day Workshop on “Comparative Analysis of Reference Management Tools” on 30th August 2025 at the College Library.

The Resource Person for the workshop was Dr. N. Amsaveni, Nodal Officer, Ragging Prevention Committee, and Assistant Professor, Department of Library and Information Science, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli – 620 024.

Inaugural Session

The program commenced at 10.00 a.m. with a Prayer Song rendered by Mrs. Raihana Fathima, Mubaliga Staff.

The Welcome Address was delivered by Dr. S. Kanagasundari, Librarian and IQAC Coordinator, AIMAAN College of Arts and Science for Women.

The Chief Guest Address was delivered by Dr. M. Munafur Hussaina, Principal, AIMAAN College of Arts and Science for Women, who emphasized the significance of digital tools in academic research and encouraged students and staff to adopt technology for knowledge management.

The Chief Guest was honoured by Dr. M. Munafur Hussaina, Principal.

Technical Session

The technical session was conducted by the Resource Person, Dr. N. Amsaveni, who delivered a comprehensive lecture and live demonstration on Comparative Analysis of Reference Management Tools such as: Mendeley, Zotero, EndNote, RefWorks and BibTeX.

She explained the features, advantages, limitations, and relevance of each tool in academic writing and research publication. The hands-on training enabled participants to practice importing references, generating citations, creating bibliographies, annotating PDFs, and exploring collaboration features.

The session was interactive and practice-oriented, which made it easy for participants to grasp the applications of the tools in their day-to-day academic and research work.

Participants

Students: 80

Staff: 58

The enthusiastic participation highlighted the importance of the workshop and the keen interest of learners in integrating digital research tools.

Feedback from Participants

Staff Feedback: Faculty members found the workshop highly informative and practical, especially the comparative study of different reference management tools. They expressed interest in organizing advanced-level sessions focusing on individual tools in detail.

Student Feedback: Students described the workshop as an eye-opening experience, particularly the hands-on session that clarified their doubts about citation and bibliography preparation. Many felt motivated to use Mendeley and Zotero in their projects and research work.

Valedictory Session

The workshop concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Ms. P. Sivaranjani, who expressed gratitude to the Resource Person, Principal, participants, and organizing team for their contributions to the successful conduct of the program.

The session formally ended at 4.00 p.m.

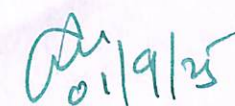

Conclusion

The One-Day Workshop on Comparative Analysis of Reference Management Tools was a grand success, significantly enriching the knowledge of both staff and students. The event not only strengthened the participants' skills in managing citations and references but also promoted academic integrity and research productivity.

The Department of Library of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women deserves appreciation for organizing such a timely and resourceful program that directly benefits the academic and research community.
