The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and AIMAN Research Development Cell of AIMAN College of Arts and Science for Women, in association with the IPR Cell and Central Library, jointly organized a one-day National Level Webinar titled “IPR: Balancing Research and Innovation” on Saturday, 26th April 2025, at 10:30 AM through online mode. The webinar aimed to raise awareness about Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) among faculty members, research scholars, and students, highlighting the importance of balancing innovation with legal protections in academic research.

The event commenced with a warm welcome address by Dr. A. Vidhya, Assistant Professor, Department of BBA, who emphasized the significance of the webinar in today's academic environment. Dr. S. Kanagasundari, IQAC Coordinator & Chief Librarian, then spoke about the theme of the webinar, highlighting the critical need for awareness of Intellectual Property Rights in safeguarding innovations and research outcomes. This was followed by the introduction of the chief guest and resource person by Dr. Meharaj Begam, Assistant Professor, Department of Computer Science, who highlighted Dr. G.T. Kohila's academic background and contributions to the field of Library and Information Science. The Principal Dr.M.Munafur Hussaina extended greetings and shared thoughts to the gatherings. The resource person for the session was Dr. Kohila G.T., Assistant Professor, Department of Library & Information Science, Pondicherry University, Pondicherry, who shared her expertise and deep insights on the subject. Her session covered the fundamentals of IPR, including copyrights, patents, trademarks, and their relevance in today's academic and research contexts. She also discussed various real-life case studies and examples, including the copyright violation faced by Sundar Pichai, the legal battles involving

The keynote presentation was both informative and engaging, providing clarity on legal aspects and practical applications of IPR in research. An interactive Q&A session followed, allowing participants to engage in meaningful dialogue with the expert.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Amuthavalli, Assistant Professor of BCA, appreciating the valuable insights shared by the speaker, the efforts of the organizing team, and the enthusiastic participation from attendees across institutions.

The webinar received an overwhelming response with 358 participants registered from various institutions across the country. E-certificates of participation were distributed to all attendees after the session.

Overall, the webinar was a great success, fulfilling its objective of promoting awareness and understanding of IPR in the research community. The organizers expressed their gratitude for the enthusiastic participation and conveyed their intention to conduct more such enlightening sessions in the future.

Mathnot Finance Limited vs Shalini Kalra & Ors on 13 September, 2021

The plaintiff is a non-banking financial institution, providing personal and business loans, secured against deposit of gold jewellery. In the very nature of its business, the plaintiff has to maintain confidential and proprietary information relating to its clients and customers, which it maintains in a database.

The plaintiff asserts that this database constitutes an original "literary work" of the Copyright Act, 1957. Prima facie, this submission has merit in view of the definition of "literary work", as contained in Section 2(1)(i) Copyright Act, 1957, which reads thus:

"Section 2(1)(i): 'literary work' includes computer programmes, table compilations including computer databases"

It is also asserted, in the plaintiff, that the aforesaid confidential information in the database on which it is based, is the plaintiff's property and is confidential information, which cannot be divulged to any third party.
