graduation. She explained how students can prepare themselves for placements and advanced studies. Dr. Hussaina also elaborated on the process of attaining Autonomous Status, sharing that AIMAAN College currently offers four autonomous courses, and two new courses are being added to meet the requirement of six programs for full autonomous recognition.

She further emphasized how autonomy will empower the institution to enhance its curriculum design, academic quality, and institutional growth to the next level.

The Director, Ms. B. Fahameda Thabaseem, provided key insights about the number of students pursuing postgraduate programs, the quality and dedication of the teaching staff, and delivered a motivational speech to encourage students to pursue higher studies with confidence and determination.

The Admission Admins, Ms. B. Farhan and Ms. J. Shahira Begam, discussed the college facilities, advanced infrastructure, affordable fee structure, and safe campus environment, assuring students and parents of AIMAAN's continued commitment to academic excellence and student welfare.

Participation and Outcome

The event saw active participation from final-year undergraduate students of all departments, who interacted enthusiastically and gained valuable insights about postgraduate pathways and institutional developments.

The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Mrs. Maheswari, Assistant Professor of B.Com (CA), who expressed heartfelt gratitude to the Principal, Director, faculty members, and organizing teams for conducting such an enlightening and motivating session.

Conclusion

The session effectively guided UG students towards postgraduate education opportunities, promoted awareness about AIMAAN College's progress toward autonomous status, and strengthened the vision of the institution as a centre of continuous learning and excellence. The program reaffirmed that at AIMAAN, "Learning Never Stops – From Graduation to Greatness."
