The Alumnae Meet held on February 28, 2024, was a momentous occasion that served as a bridge between the past and the present, connecting alumnae from various graduating classes to celebrate achievements, share experiences, and strengthen the bonds that tie our esteemed institution together. The event commenced with a warm welcome by Dr.B.Vani, principal, who extended heartfelt greetings to the alumnae. She set the tone for the day, emphasizing the significance of the alumnae community in contributing to the legacy of our institution. The Vice Principals and Dr.K.Kalpana (Secretary), Alumnae Association took the opportunity to gather valuable insights about our current students, acknowledging their achievements, aspirations, and challenges. Her interactive session provided a platform for students to voice their concerns and aspirations, fostering a sense of inclusivity and empowerment within the institution. Alumnae had the opportunity to network and reconnect with former classmates and faculty members. The networking sessions facilitated meaningful conversations and the exchange of professional contacts. Outstanding achievements by alumnae in various fields were acknowledged and celebrated. From entrepreneurship to community service, the diverse accomplishments of our alumnae were truly commendable. The event concluded with a message of gratitude to all the alumnae for their active participation. She reiterated the importance of alumnae engagement and encouraged continued collaboration with the institution. The alumnae meet on February 28, 2024, was a tremendous success. It not only celebrated the achievements of our alumnae but also reinforced the strong bond shared between the institution and its graduates. The event served as a testament to the thriving community spirit that continues to define our alma mater.
